Private Law Children

Elizabeth is a specialist child law silk and sits as a Family Division Deputy High Court Judge. She has an established national reputation for a pragmatic, robust and strategic approach, excellent advocacy and forensic preparation. She is highly regarded for her personable and compassionate style with clients, and works collaboratively with solicitors and junior counsel in tactically planning cases as a team from the very outset of her involvement.

Particular areas of interest include:

- LGBT and Modern Families parenting issues
- Surrogacy and fertility law
- Parental order applications
- Parental alienation and emotionally conflicted children
- Disputes about habitual residence
- Domestic and international relocation
- Disputes about education, religion and medical issues

Elizabeth is an expert authority in the development of the law relating to surrogacy; she was leading counsel in the recent groundbreaking cases of [Re X \(A Child\) \(Surrogacy: Time Limit\) \[2014\] EWHC 3135 \(Fam\)](#) and [Re Z \(No 2\) \(a child\) \[2016\] EWHC 1191 \(fam\)](#) (which led to the Government's revision of the law prohibiting single people from applying for parental orders).

Elizabeth is also regularly instructed in cases following breakdown of surrogacy arrangements or same-sex parenting arrangements.

Elizabeth is the head of the Chambers Childcare Group and a member of Chambers Management Committee.

In 2017 Elizabeth was shortlisted for 'Family Silk of the Year' at the Jordans Family Law Awards, in 2018 she was the 'Regional/Scottish Silk of the Year' at the Legal 500 UK Awards and in 2019 she was shortlisted again for the same award.

Elizabeth is Direct Access trained and is therefore happy and able to accept instructions from prospective clients directly.
