

09.00 Registration

09.30 Nick Starks — *Introductions

09.35 Charmian Jackson — *Family Money in Finance Cases: Trusts, Thomas and judicial encouragement

Consideration of the pressing issues in cases involving trusts, nuptial settlements or other provision of family money, including how to approach cases which fall outside the Thomas approach.

10.10 Bethany Stirling and Emma Kelly — *Case law update

A summary of the relevant case law and guidance that has emerged over the last twelve months together with an examination of its practical effect in day-to-day practice.

11.00 Break

11.30 Nicholas Allen KC — *Farming Cases and Professional Partnerships

Farming cases are notoriously difficult to resolve – how can the court make a fair award for the non-farming spouse without causing irreparable damage to the farming enterprise?

12.15 Nicholas Starks — *Schedule 1 CA 1989 Applications—where are we now?

A review of the principles relating to Schedule 1 CA 1989 applications in light of the latest case law.

12.45 Lunch

- 12.45 Lunch
- 13.45 Elizabeth Isaacs KC — *Recent Research in Private Law Cases
Examining the implications of the latest research about the rise in Private Law applications by people who are not parents.
- 14.15 Zara Mahmood and Eloise Marriott — *Case law update
A summary of the relevant case law and guidance that has emerged over the last twelve months together with an examination of its practical effect in day-to-day practice.
- 15.00 Break
- 15.30 Tom Harrill — *Intoxicating Liquors
A tactical guide to maximising the effective use of scientific evidence for alcohol use in private law proceedings both prior to, and beyond, the making of final orders.
- 16.00 Holly Hilbourne-Gollop — *The approach to be taken in cases that involve allegations of sexual assault and rape
A step by step guide to the approach to be taken in cases involving allegations of sexual assault and rape, with an overview of the recent case law updates
- 16.30 Networking and drinks reception