

- 09.30 Keynote Address from the President of the Family Division, Sir Andrew McFarlane
- 10.00 Fergus Campbell—Secret Courts... a thing of the past? A practical guide to transparency in Care proceedings
An overview of the legislative framework and common law developments governing transparency in the family courts.
- 10.50 Matthew Maynard—Case law update
A summary of the relevant case law and guidance that has emerged over the last twelve months together with an examination of its practical effect in day-to-day practice.
- 11.50 Break
- 12.10 Dr Kate Hellin—Psychological Assessment in the Family Court: are we missing the point?
An expert's view on the current developments in the use and instruction of psychologists. Dr Hellin gives her opinion from the coal face on recent and emerging changes in the law.
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Dr Simon Wilkinson—Assessing concerns about fabricated and induced illness within care proceedings
- 15.00 Break
- 15.30 Tracy Lakin—Deprivation of Liberty Orders—A blunt tool for a system in crisis?
A guide to the most recent Deprivation of Liberty case law developments and an analysis of the judiciary's attempt to ensure proper placements are made available.